

MARRIAGE TO AN INMATE:

Any inmate wishing to be married while incarcerated in this facility must obtain prior approval through routine inmate request procedures. Once the request is approved, the inmate or proposed spouse must schedule the ceremony at a date/time approved by facility staff. The person presiding over the ceremony (the officiant) must be approved by facility staff as well. At the approved date/time, the proposed spouse, and the officiant will be escorted into the facility. No other person(s) are allowed to accompany the participants. The participants shall not be allowed physical contact with the inmate and no exchange of property is allowed. Once the ceremony has concluded, the participants shall be escorted out of the facility.
